

East Midlands Centre
of Excellence

Survey Feedback November 2006

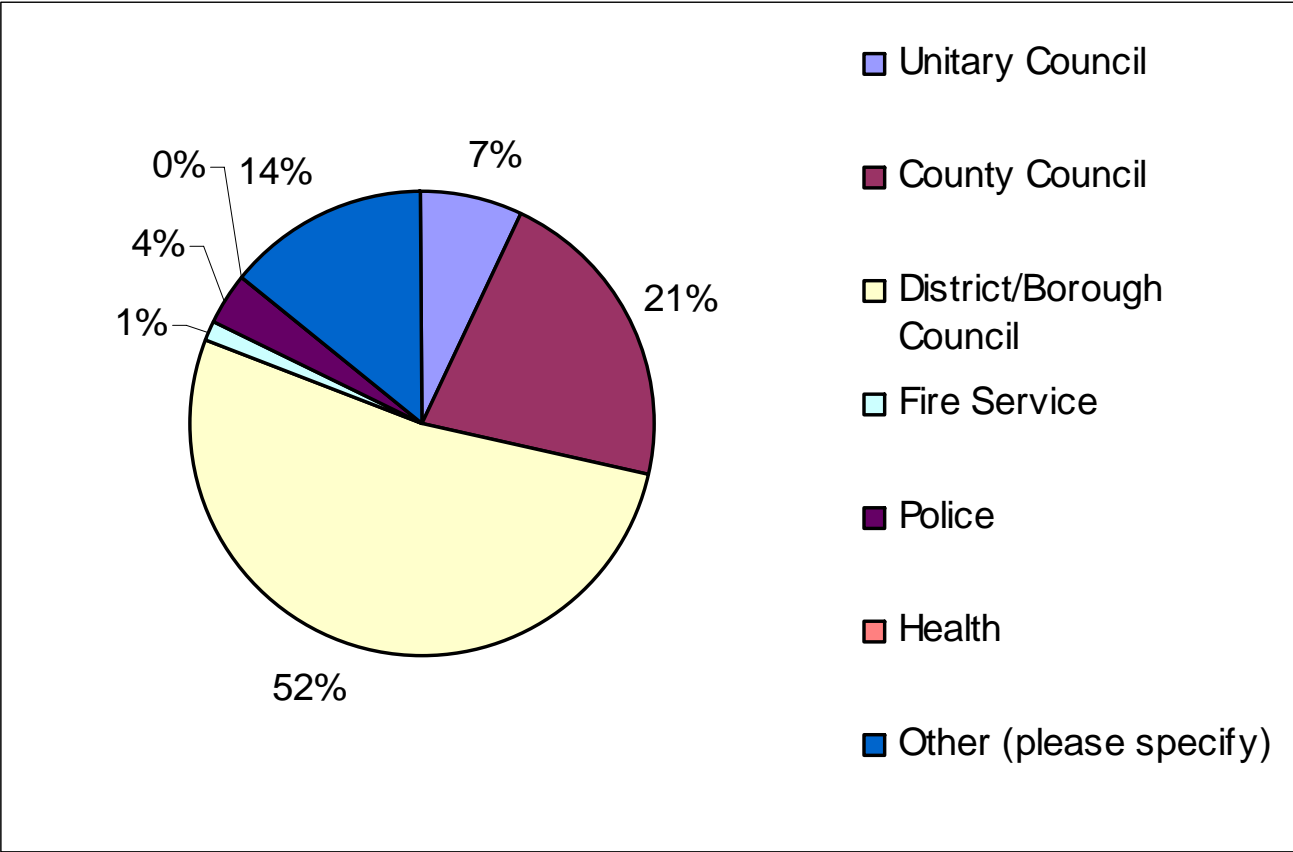

Survey Respondent Total

Improvement through efficiency

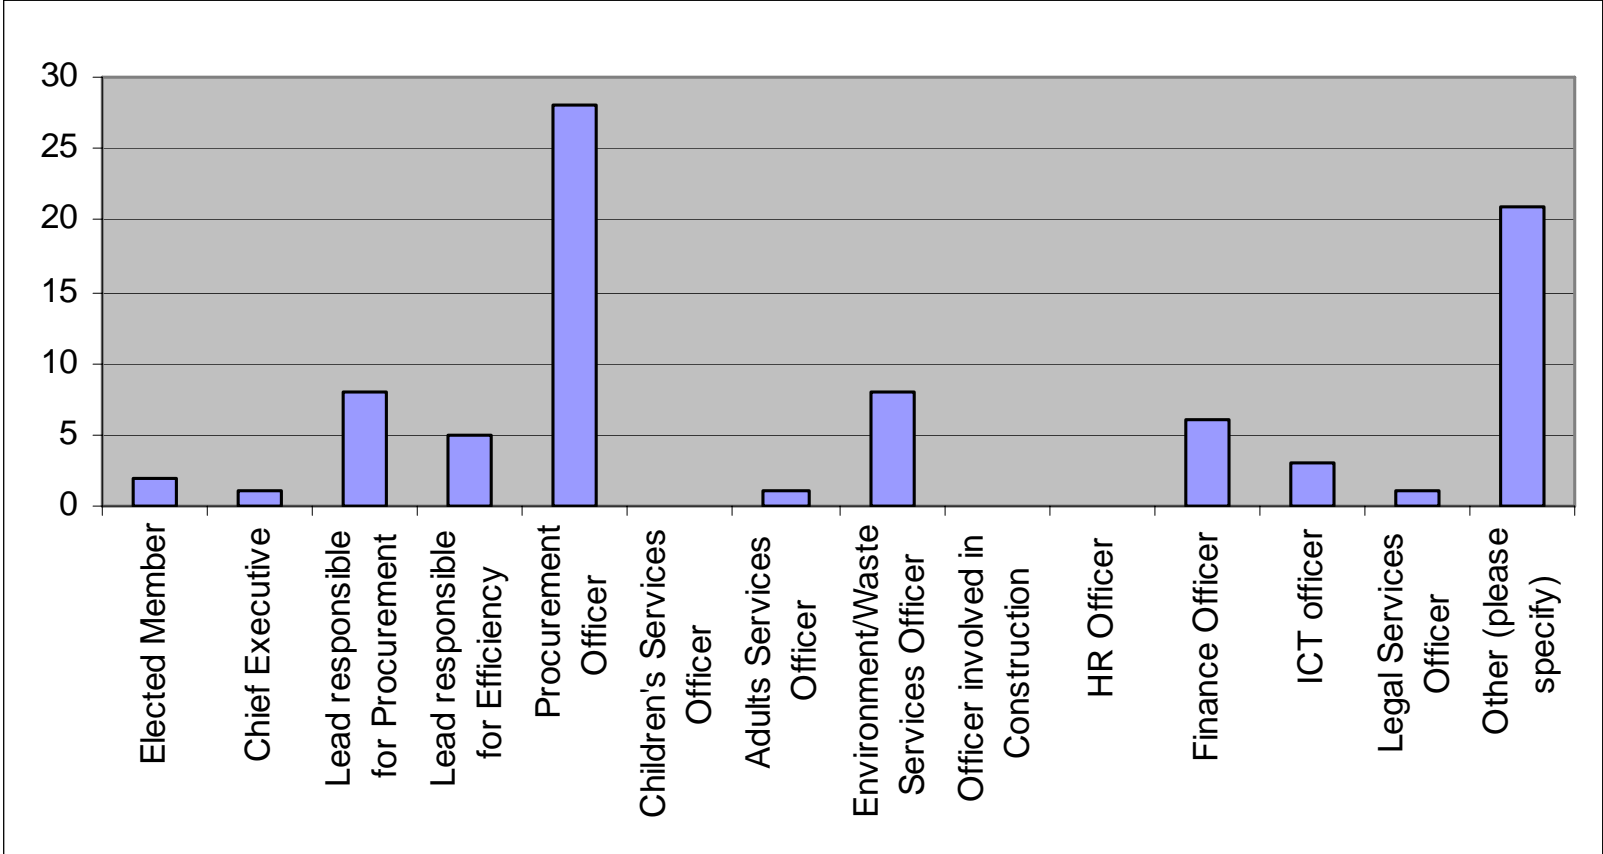

About Your Organisation

- Other
- 1. SWCoE
 - 2. Other
 - 3. Purchasing Consortium
 - 4. partnership of 5 local authorities
 - 5. Anonymous
 - 6. Local authority purchasing organisation
 - 7. Purchasing consortium
 - 8. Shared Procurement Service
 - 9. Partnership Board
 - 10. Highways Agency
 - 11. Local Gov Consortia
 - 12. Regional broadband consortium

Improvement through efficiency

Please select the category that best describes your position

Improvement through efficiency

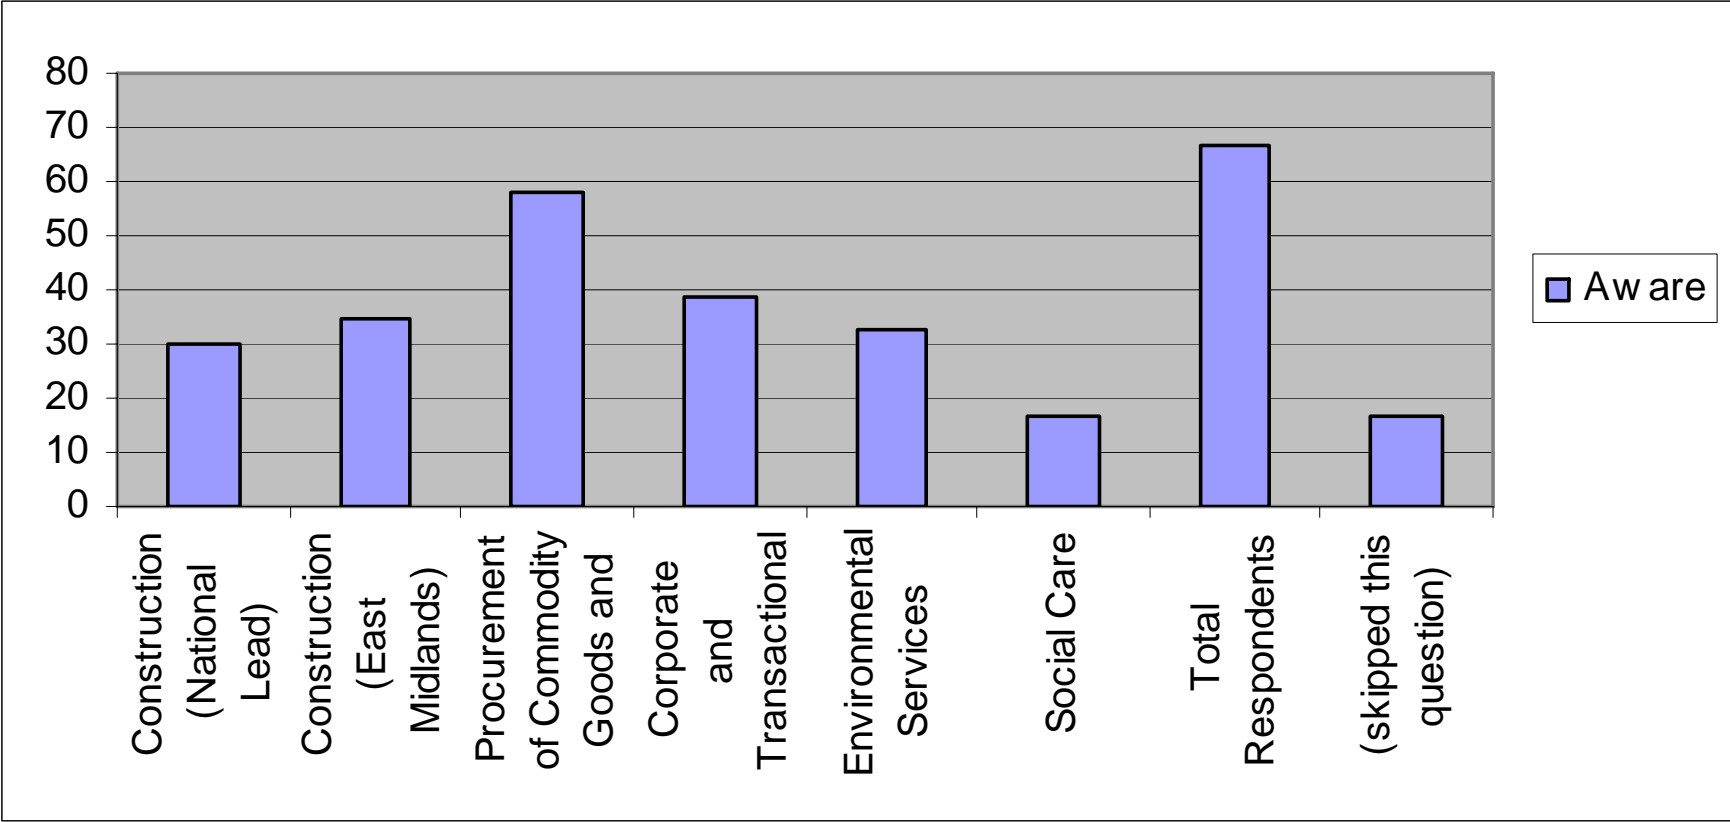

Category that best describes your position (other)

- 1. project manager
- 2. Partnership Co-ordinator
- 3. Programme Manager
- 4. Head of Services
- 5. Corporate Development Officer
- 6. Executive Director
- 7. Executive Director
- 8. deputy chief executive
- 9. Programme Manager w/ aspects of procurement
- 11. Liaison Officer
- 12. anonymous
- 13. Procurement Improvement Manager
- 14. External Communications Manager
- 15. Programme Manager
- 16. Head of Policy / Projects
- 17. executive support for policy team
- 19. Head of Revenue
- 20. Head of ICT
- 21. Manager

Improvement through efficiency

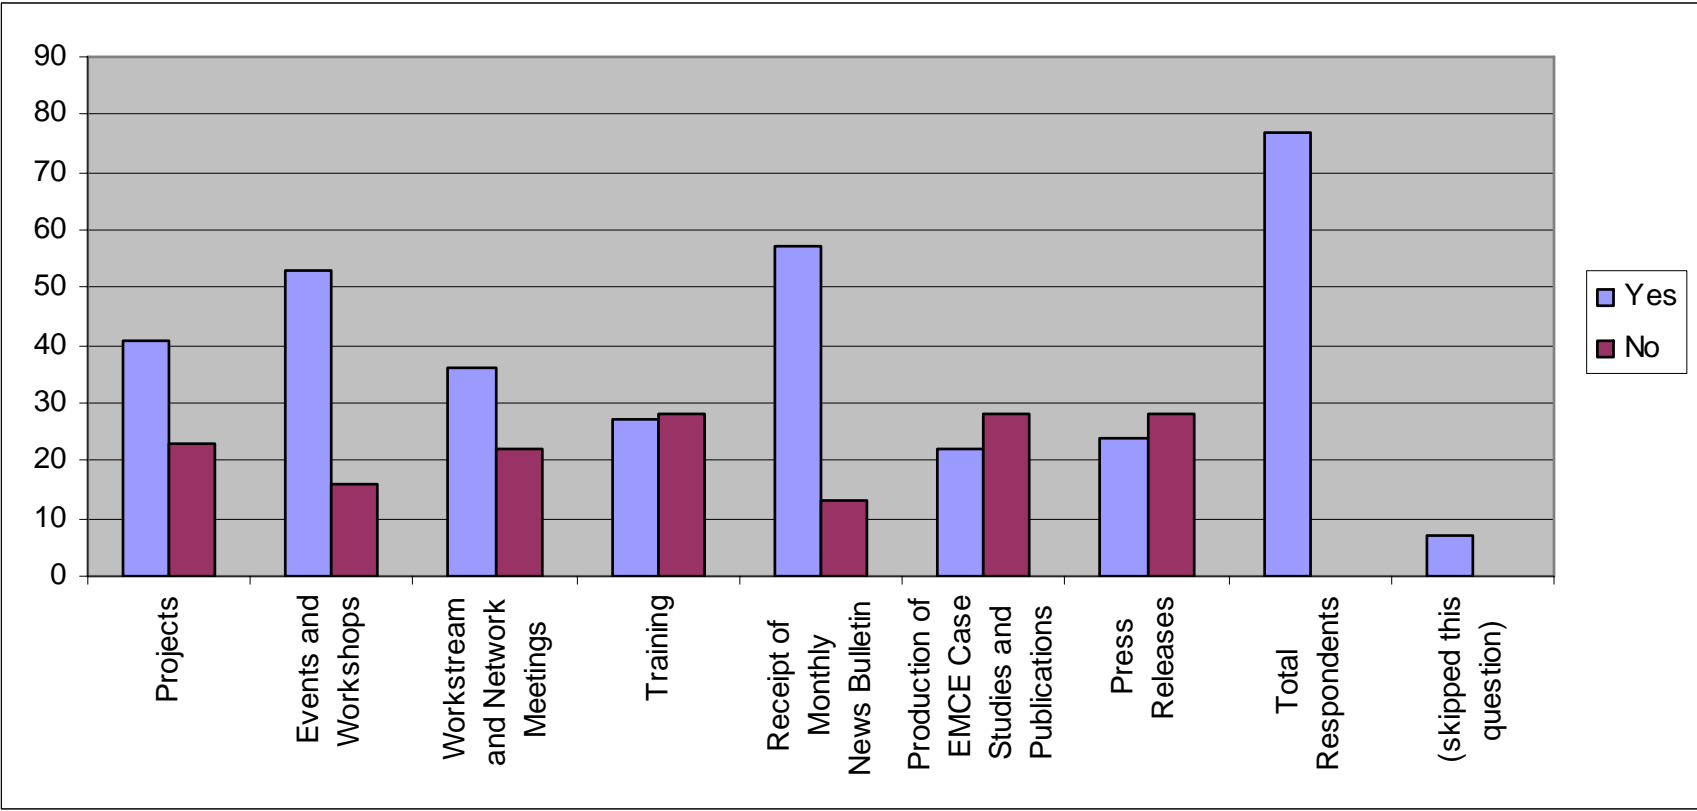

Are you aware of the 6 priority work streams in the EMCE Business Plan?

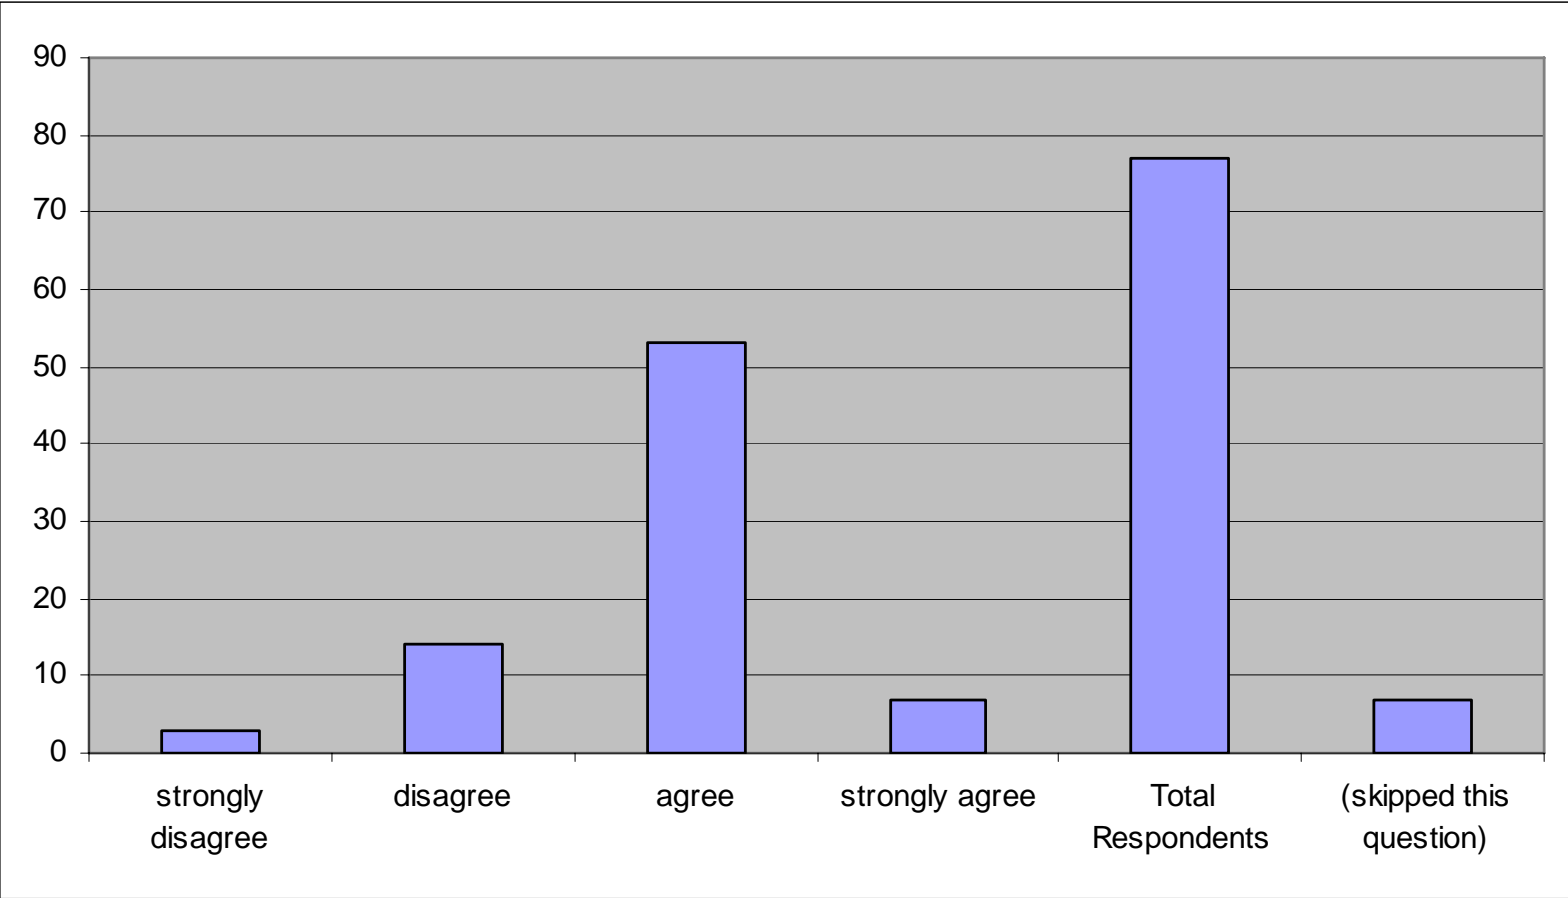

Improvement through efficiency

Have you been involved with EMCE via any of the following?

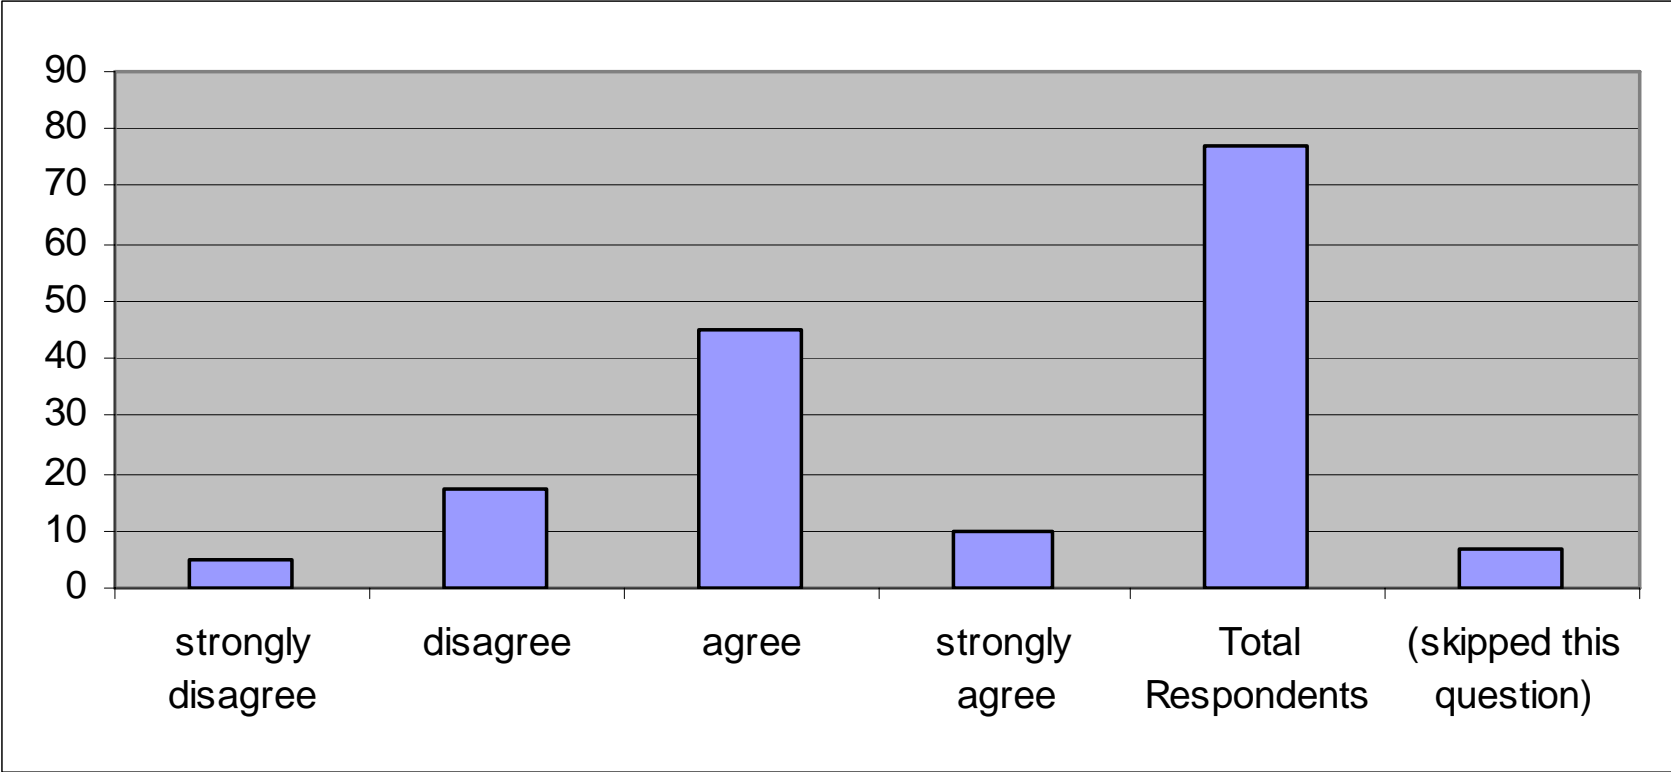

Improvement through efficiency

My understanding of the role of EMCE has improved over the last year.

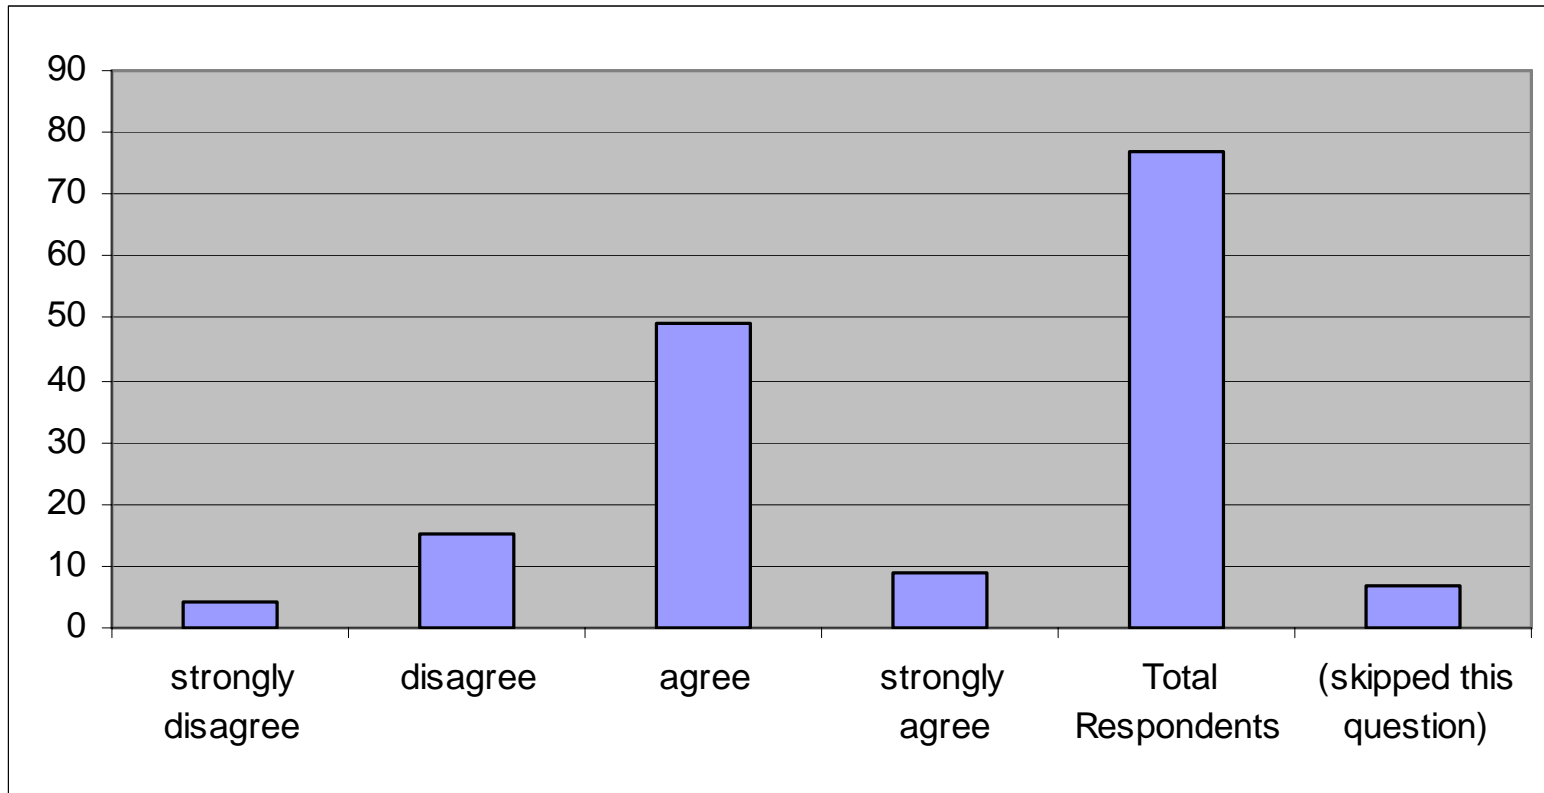

Improvement through efficiency

My interaction with EMCE has improved over the last year

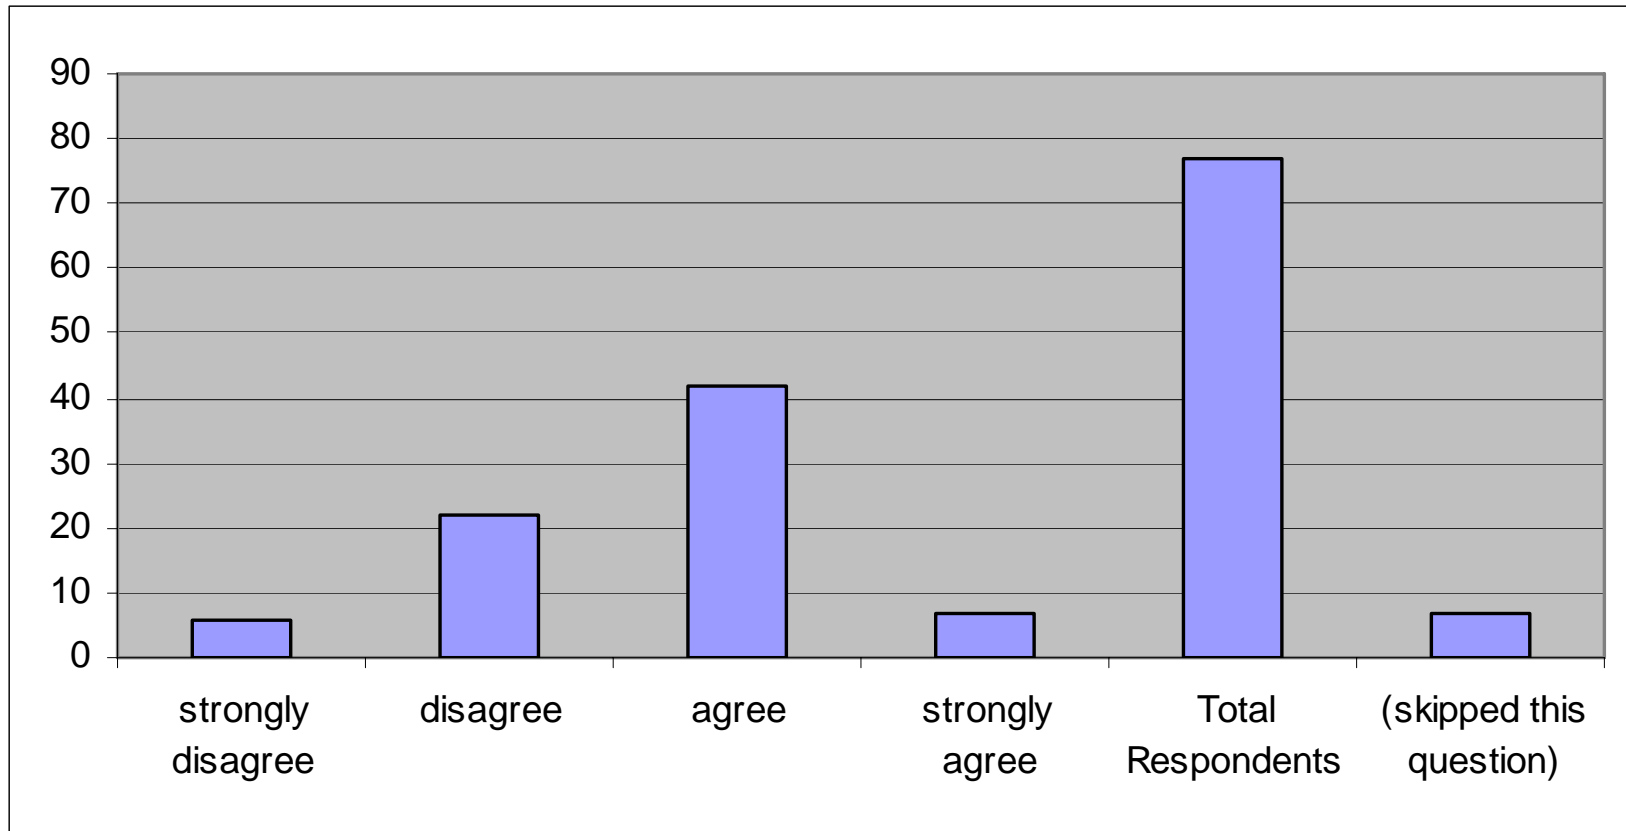

Improvement through efficiency

Is the EMCE contributing to your thinking on improvement and efficiency in your specialist area?

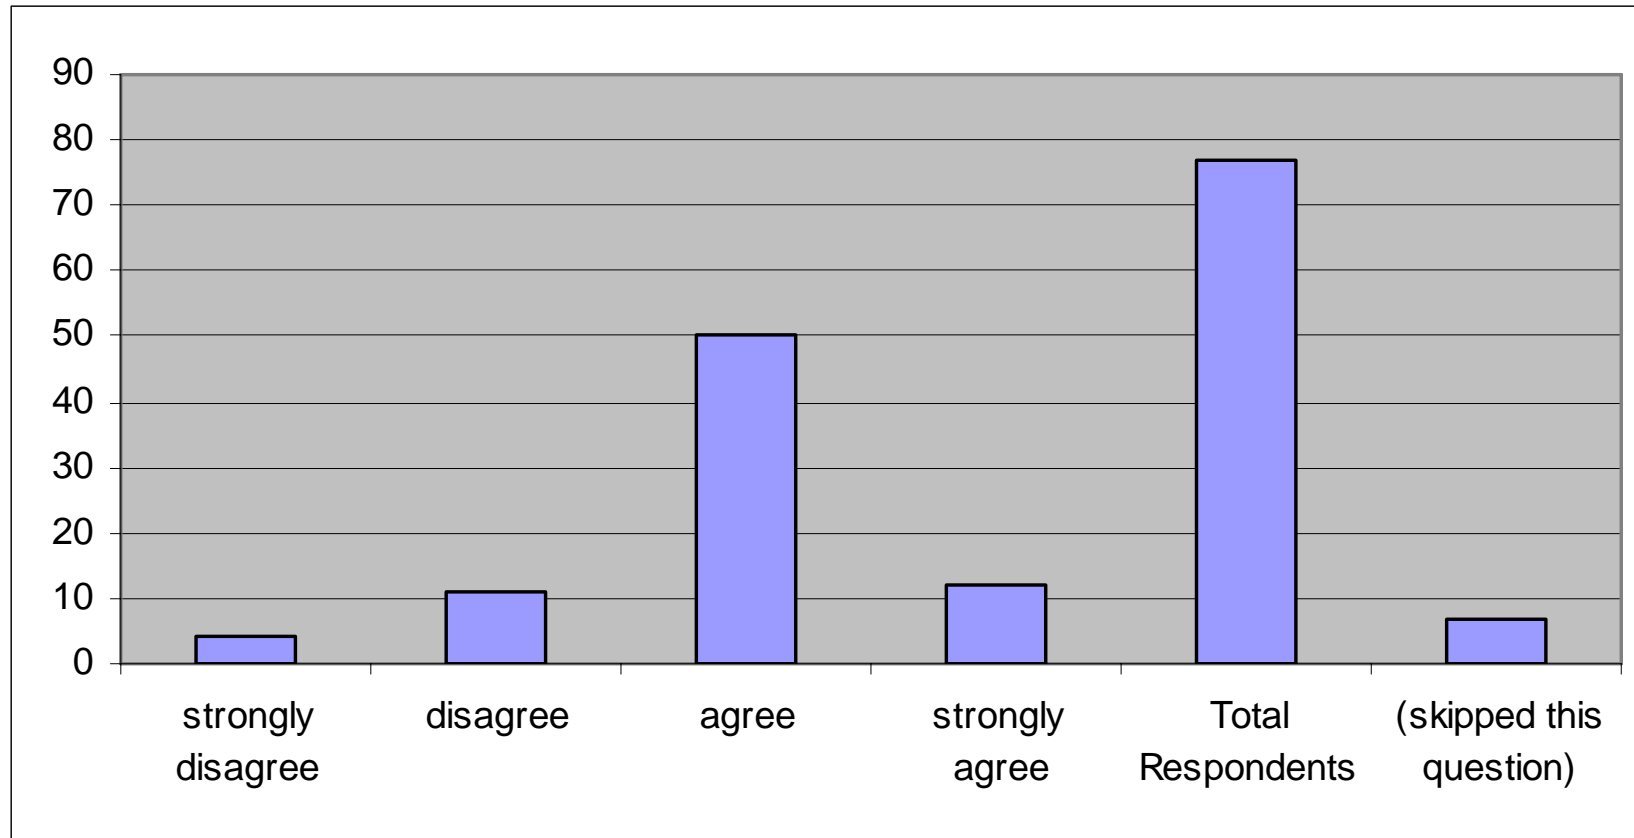

Improvement through efficiency

I use the EMCE as a resource for improvement and efficiency related work

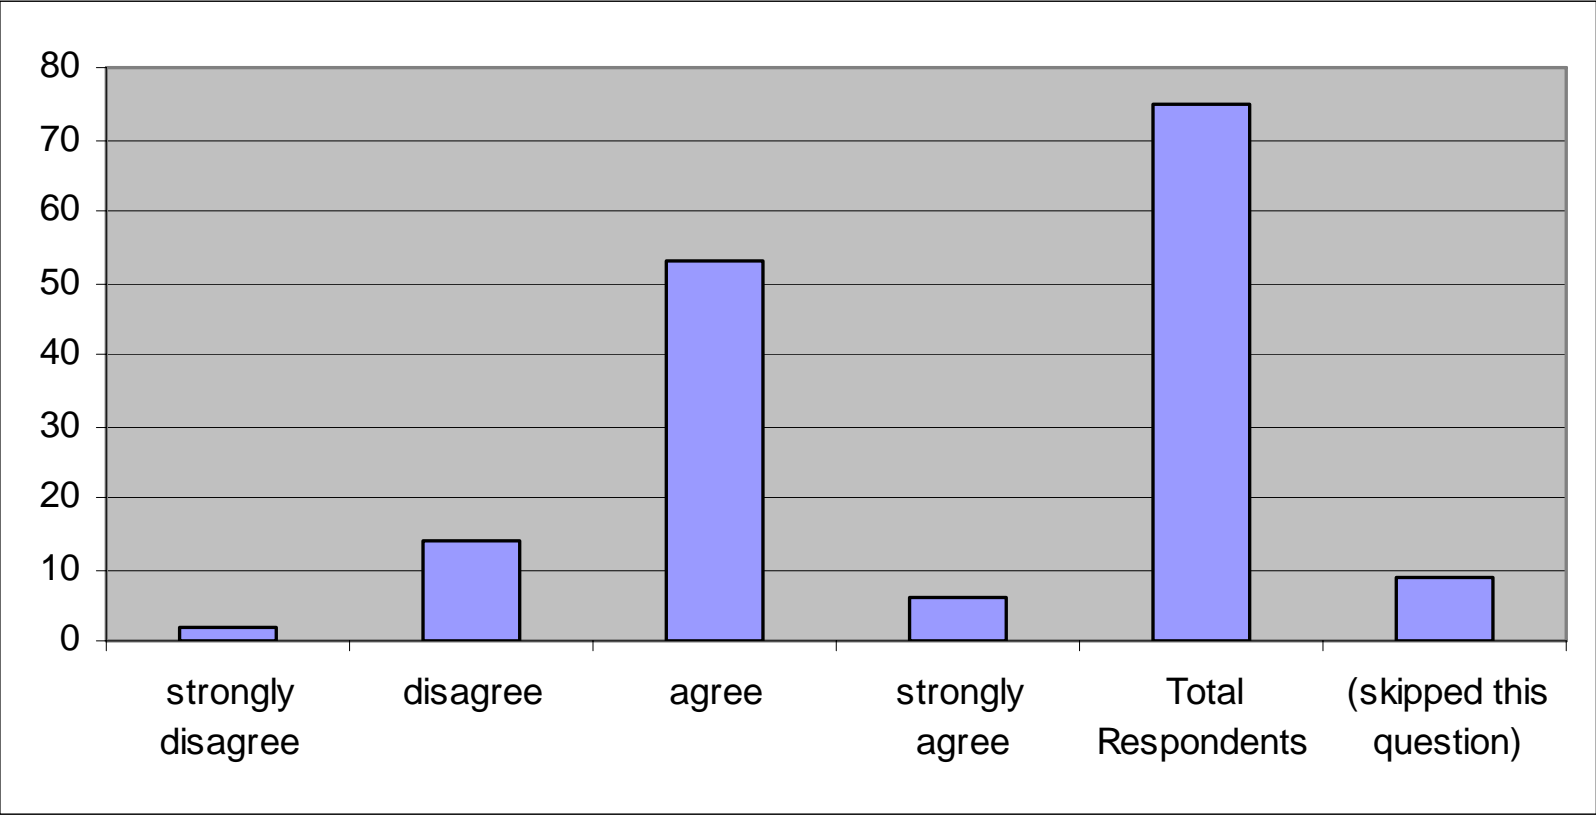

Improvement through efficiency

The EMCE has communicated well with me over the last year.

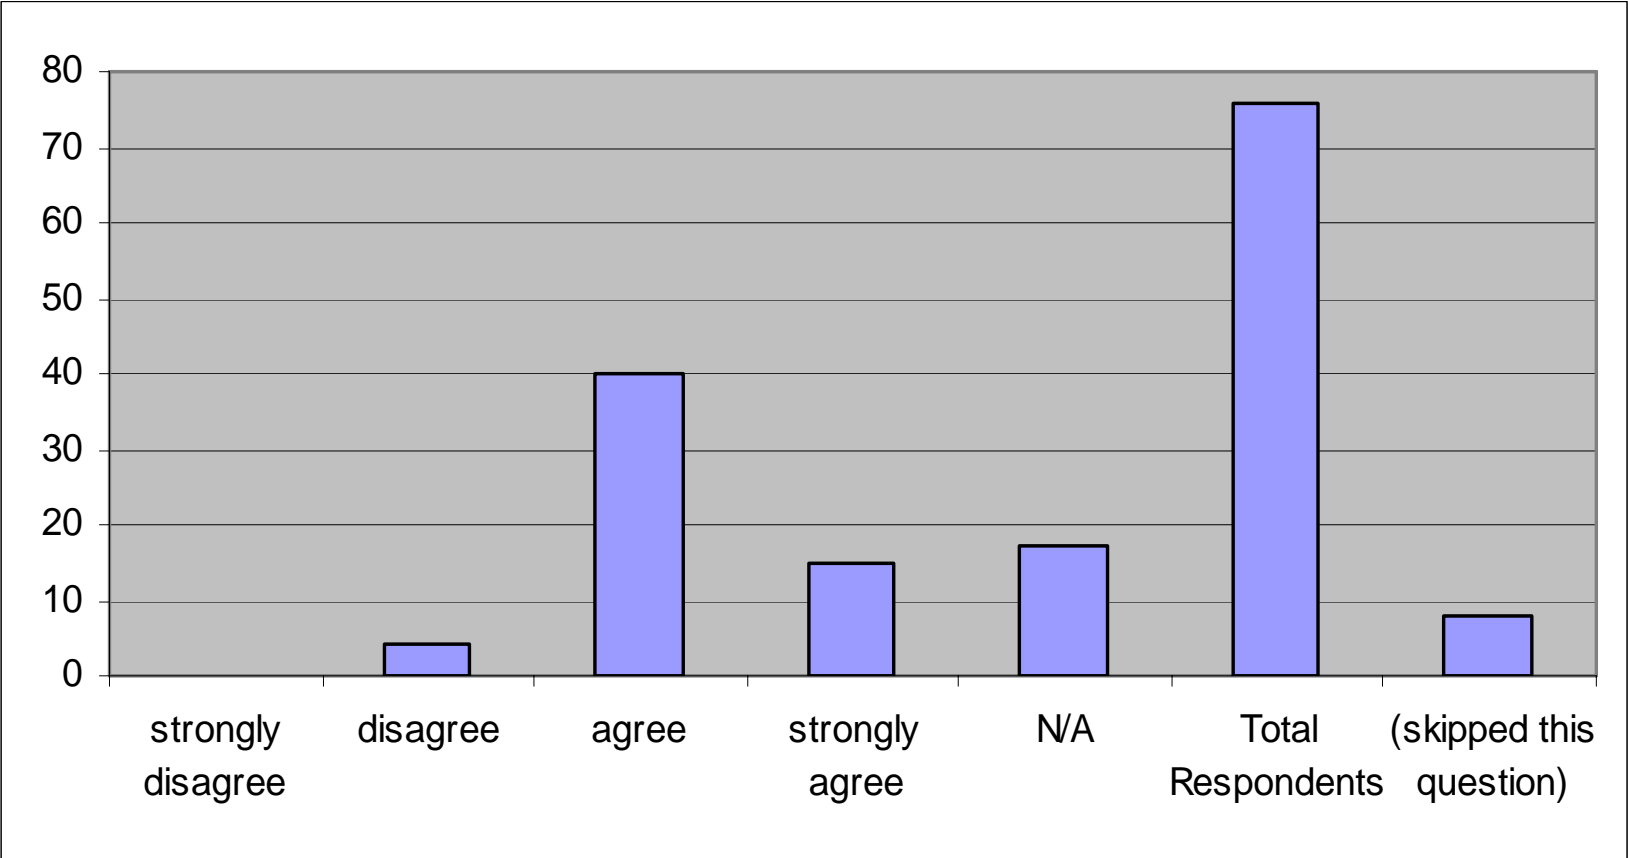

Improvement through efficiency

EMCE Communications have improved over the last year

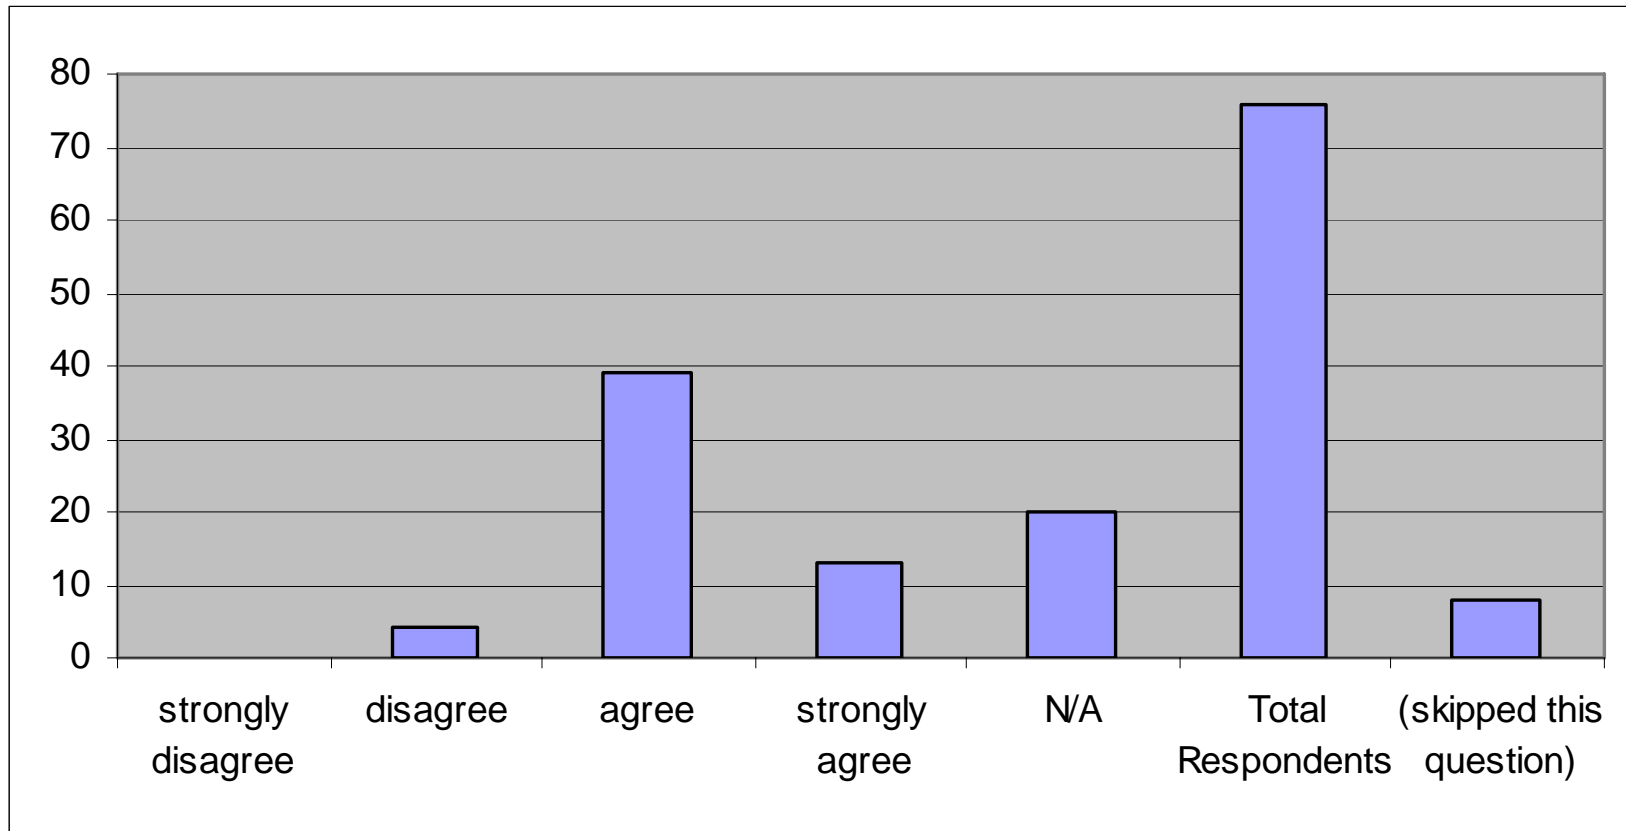

Improvement through efficiency

I have found it easy to contact the EMCE

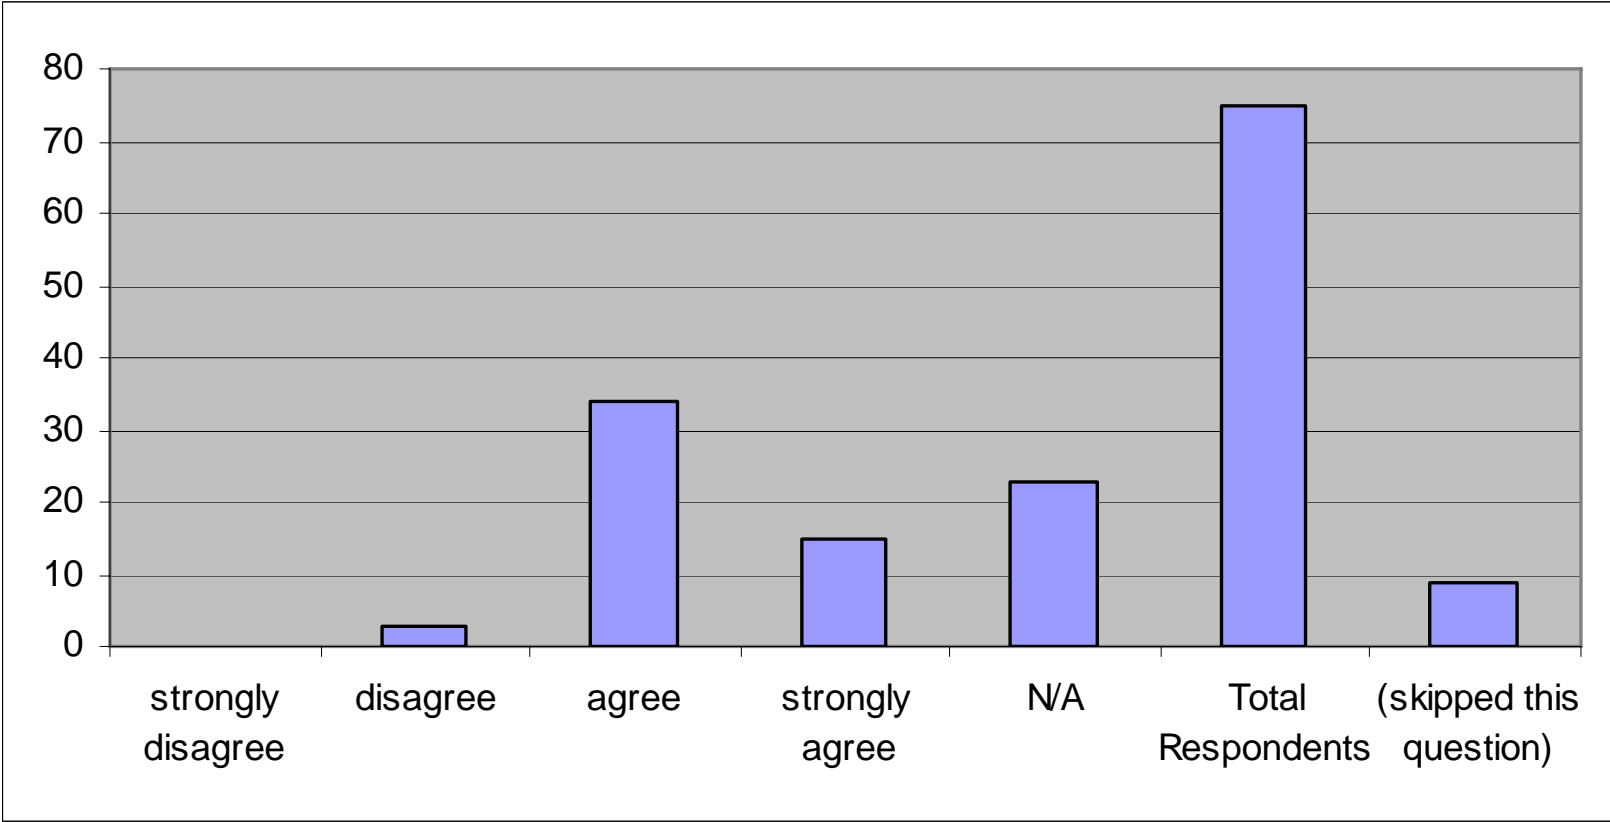

Improvement through efficiency

The quality of response received from the EMCE is good

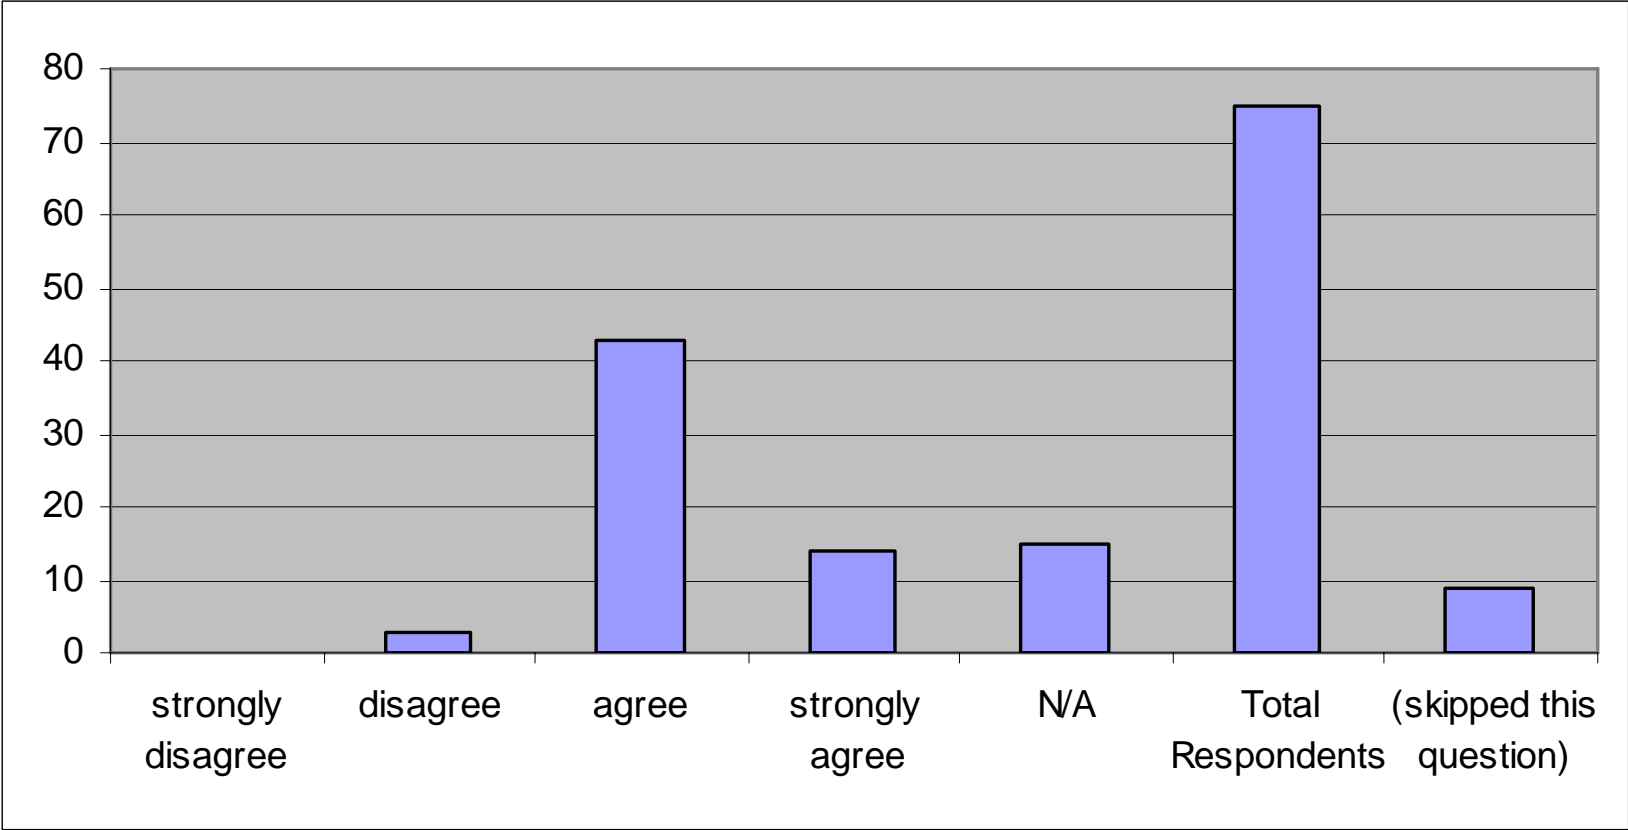

Improvement through efficiency

The speed of response from the EMCE is good

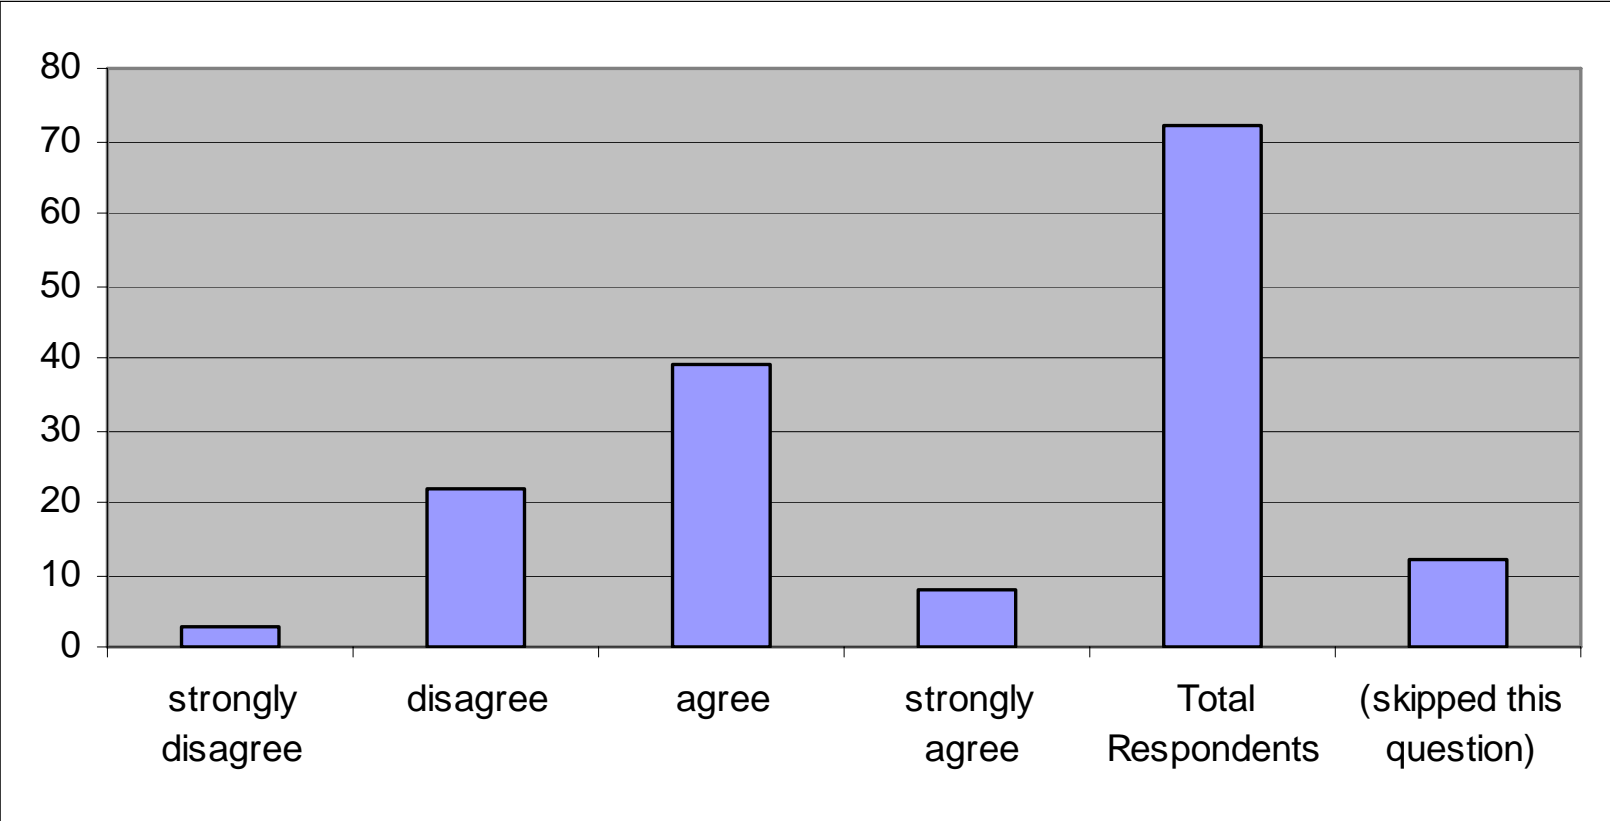

Improvement through efficiency

Overall support from the EMCE is good

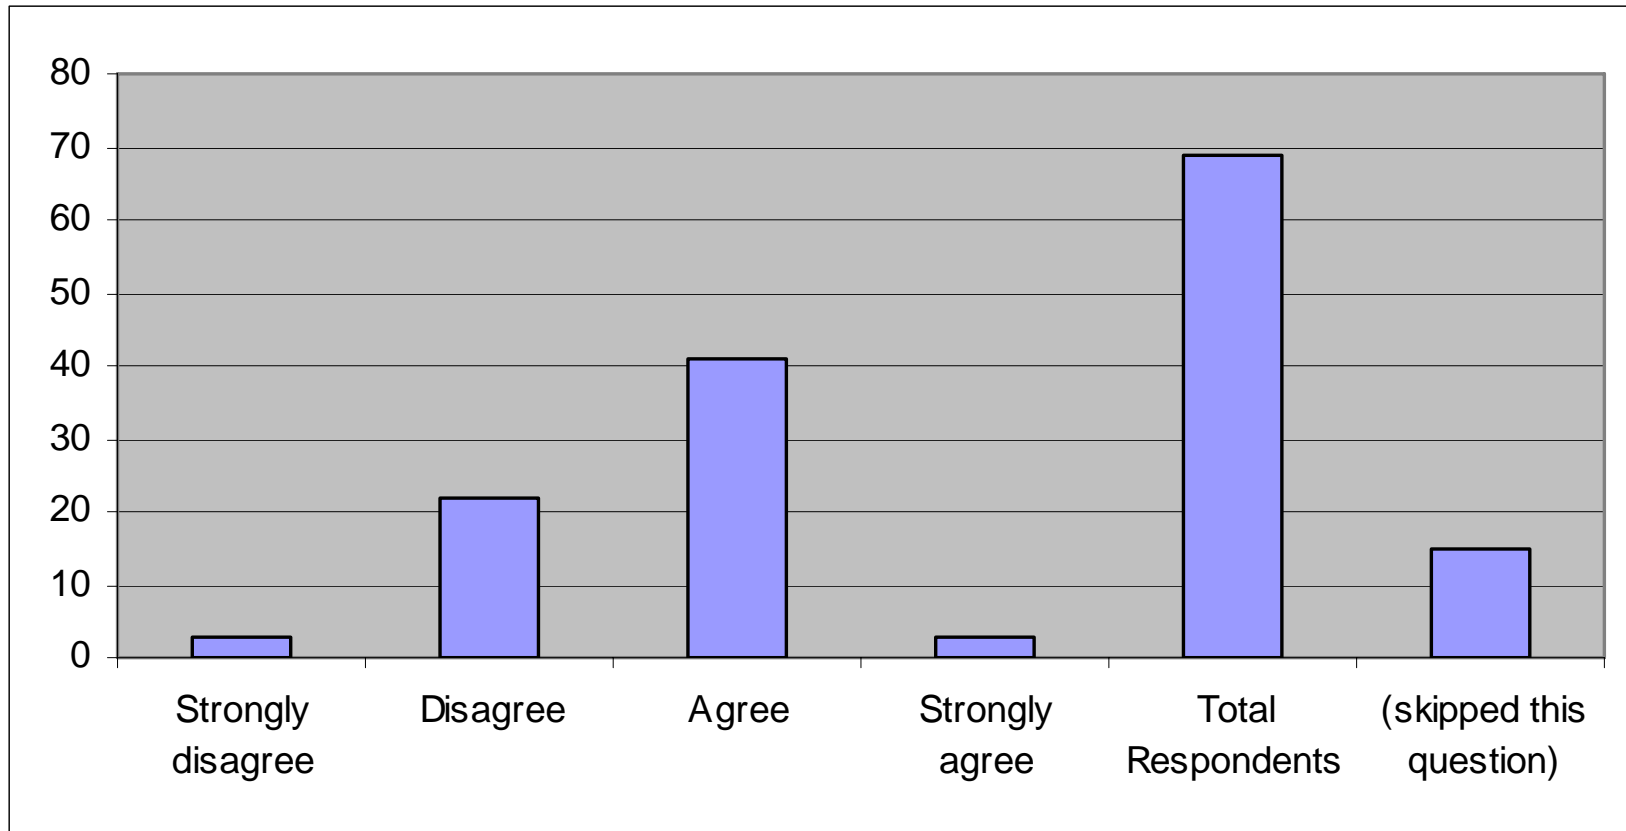

Improvement through efficiency

I find the EMCE Monthly News Bulletin a valuable resource.

Improvement through efficiency

I find the EMCE website to be a valuable resource.

Improvement through efficiency

For further information contact:
nathan.kendal@nottscc.gov.uk
0115 977 3288

Improvement through efficiency

